Thorntonite

1953

SEPTEMBER 2, 8:00 O'CLOCK

AT THORNTON TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL, HARVEY, ILLINOIS, THE T BENCH

CAME TO LIFE AGAIN . . . . .

THE 1953

THORNTONITE

T Bench: Bill McGill, Linda Wipior

The T Bench
Symbol of Thornton

Ever since the Class of 1932 had presented the Thornton campus with a big concrete bench in the shape of a T, that bench had played a major part in campus life.

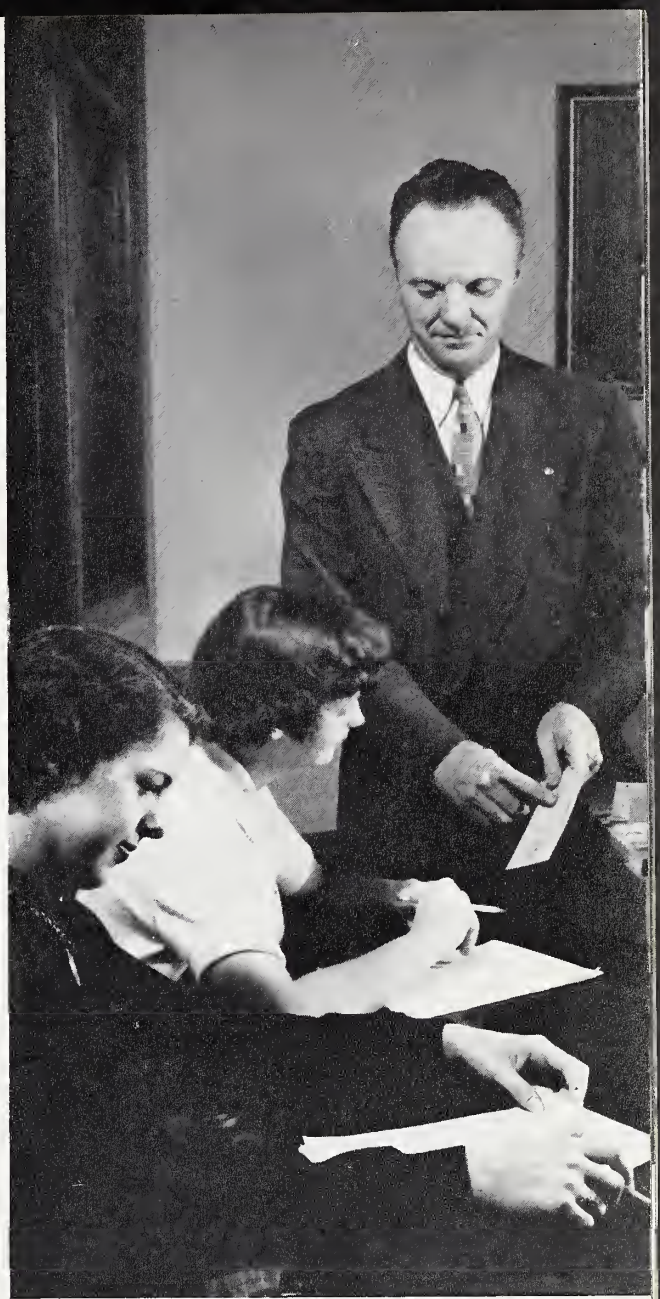

It was such a handy place to loaf on those beautiful fall noons and on the first warm days when spring fever hit.

In fact, you might say, the T Bench was really the symbol of the beginning and the ending of the school year.

As cold weather arrived, the bench was deserted, but you knew it would be back in business, come Spring.

Principal's office: Joyce Kantzler, Merrill Moss, Mr. Tilton

Bookstore storage: Harry True, Eric Mueller

Credits checked: Audrey Swanson, student, Mrs. Wiener, registrar

Homecoming: Mr. Hopkins

The first Purple X, the first faculty party, the first pep rally, and the first club meetings characterized the month.

The first football game ended in defeat for the Wildcats and a victory for the Kittens. The first plans for Homecoming were announced just as those for the Stand-Up were nearing completion.

First glimpses of a tall, thin man made everyone realize that a new superintendent was on the job.

September, Month of Firsts

Cal City game: The team takes off.

Rental library: Dave Hutchinson

Of Parties and Pictures

Seniors were so slicked up for their pictures their friends hardly knew them. The "seat 'em and shoot 'em" routine for junior pictures aroused the curious. The queen of the Stand-Up was crowned before spectators numbering over four hundred. The newspaper was getting desperate for a student photographer. School supplies were stowed away in the bookstore storeroom as volumes came off the shelves in the rental library.

Junior pictures: Bill Jedlicka, seated, Judy Caress, Carolyn Long, Eugene Krygowski

Ticket booth in the cafeteria: Jerry La Reau

Thorntonite reporter interviews the new superintendent: Ron Stack, Dr. Hanson

Stunts, Tickets and Interviews

"Candyland Capers," theme of the Freshman Stand-Up, brought forth kids-in-toyland stunts. The ticket booth in the cafeteria did a rushing business as the familiar announcement appeared in the daily bulletin, "Tickets will be sold during all three lunch periods . . . ." Dr. Ernest M. Hanson, the new superintendent, was interviewed by a Thorntonite reporter and so were the fourteen new members of the faculty.

Freshman Stand-Up: Carolyn Ryan, Myrna Loy, Emily Hand, Audrey Swanson, Marilyn De Frank

Thornton fans with balloons: Loretta McCarthy and friends

October Meant Football

*Timekeepers: Mr. Sturm,
Mr. Sutor, Mr. Schloss*

Refreshment Crew: Susie Coutchie, Donna Davis, Marilyn Guillaume, Barbara Goff, Sheila Salmonson, Julia Anderson, Eleanor Dask, Janet Meyer, Vivian Tornabene, Betsy Voss, Mr. Lilley

"Operation Hot Dog" had long since moved out of Mr. Lilley's garage and in to the fieldhouse, but he was still there to supervise. Thornton balloons proved popular. You could wave them with one hand, spray pickles from a hot dog with the other, and let out a tonsil-bursting yell, all at the same time.

Homecoming rooters

Cheerleaders: Polly Lindert, Nancy Chisser, Helen Nielsen, Claudia Fenwick, Sue Stewart, Evie Narkus, Bette Drummond

It seemed as if people liked to open their mouths—some to eat and some to yell. The cheerleaders practiced hours to get the desired effect and urged on the hollering and whistling when the team scored.

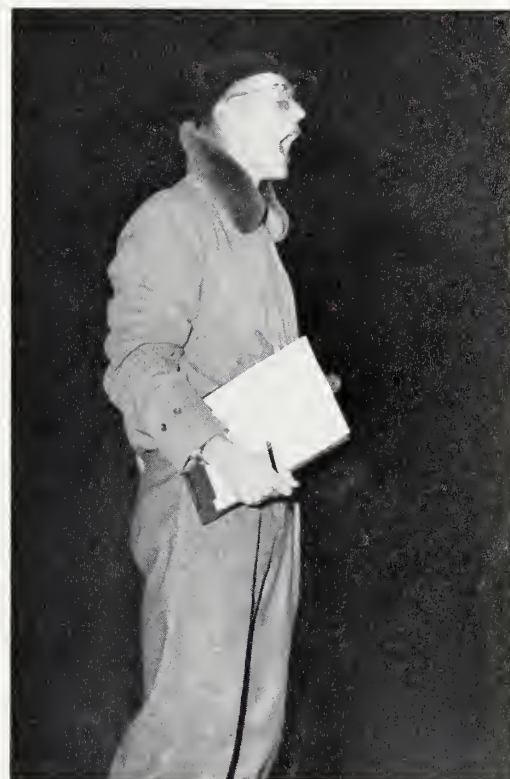

And when they weren't yelling, the kids were eating—like the taffy apples at the Homecoming bonfire.

Open Your Mouths And... Yell!

Taffy apples at the Bonfire: Joe Milianta, Eddie Schaal, Boots Spindler, Joan Beck, Binnie Braun, Paul Slater

Bill McGill lets out a yell.

Fruitcake lesson: Neoma Warnol, Joann Werner, Evelyn Gifford

Classes were in session too, although parents must sometimes have wondered. They heard so much more about outside activities.

The girls in the foods classes had fun watching demonstrations and experimenting with the appliances in their modernized kitchen.

It was a good thing fruit cake required several eggs. It took practice to get a good glob of egg white for the photographer!

And speaking of practice—the marching band got plenty of that before ever the first game came up, especially under the lights.

To Cook, Or Jootle?

Breakfast lesson: Carolyn Adams, Janel Sopko, Marie Ortmueller

The band in marching formation

TTHS Library: Vivian Marovich, Danny Eagan, Margaret Kummer

Library Open House: Miss Covey, Mr. Moore, Mr. Opperman, Mrs. Beier, Mr. Dore, Mr. Beier

Play Practice and New Books

Some really went to the library to study, not just to heckle the librarians. Others preferred heckling the play coach or the members of the cast. Or that's the way it seemed sometimes.

In December the librarians gave an open house to acquaint the faculty with the new books. Many a good resolution was made (only to be broken) to "read some of those interesting books." Somehow the pressure of papers to check and lessons to prepare always interfered. In the genial atmosphere of tea and cookies it was fun to dream, though.

Play practice: Dick Sublette and Peter Eckstein with the cast for "The Rivals"

Library Open House: Harriet Hillyer, pours for Mr. Swanberg

Loyalty to School To Club, to Team

Homecoming bonfire: The Argo Sailor goes up in smoke.

*Faculty bowling: Mr. McMahon,
Mr. Phillips, Mr. Britton,
Miss Hanschmann, Dr. McVey*

Loyalty Day: Ann Henderson, Sue Stein, Kathleen Neely, Vivian Anderson, Esther Wiegel, Yvonne Narkus, Cecily Daanen, Marilyn Cary, Jean Gjerde, Joan Evans, Dorothy Weise, Betsy Voss, Joyce Kantzler, Marilyn De Frank, Karen Schmidt, Diane Alexander

Pledging loyalty to the Girls Club and its ideals, with the candle-lighting ceremony on Loyalty Day, was a solemn occasion.

But burning the effigy of the Argo sailor was quite the opposite kind of an affair. Cheers, laughter, and harangues to the mob to get in there and back the team at tomorrow's Homecoming game brought everybody's blood pressure up. Or maybe it was the heat of the fire!

When faculty bowling really got rolling, there was plenty of rivalry and good-natured razzing between teams.

Spanish Club initiation: Vincenette Christopher, Gregory Brown (dripping water), Lois Cohenour, Janis Crane, Lynn Jolley, Joan Brown, Danny Frieling

Initiations and Intramurals

Some people make a complete job of things when they go after them, and that's what happened at Spanish Club initiation. He got his apple!

The championship teams in intramural competition did a complete job, too, when they came out ahead after all the games were played.

Purple X's often completely filled the gym after games, making dancing a little hazardous but all the more fun.

Intramural basketball

Purple X open house after the football game

Senior float: Jerry Hetfield and Allen Westbrook (on the wagon); Gib Vanderaa, George Ramsay (inside the mule)

Bonfires and Parades

Bonfire crowd

"Frontier Days" as the theme for Homecoming brought forth covered wagons and cowboys with their ten-gallon hats and six-shooters.

Seniors captured first prize in the parade and Hi-Teens took second. But fifteen other floats and two walking delegations joined in the fun that October day.

The night before, a happy crowd had enjoyed the bonfire entertainment and had cheered when the Homecoming court was named.

They let off steam at the big Free Fling on Friday night after the successful game with Argo and so were ready for the dress-up party on Saturday night.

Dance decorations: Sue Crowley

Big Moment of the Week

Dance entertainers: John Murphy, Gary Vaughn, Chuck Ancil, Warren Radtke

Announcement of the King and Queen of Homecoming marked the climax of the big week-end.

Everybody who came to the dance had a chance to vote on the candidates, previously chosen by the entire student body. While the crowd danced to the music or laughed with the entertainers, the committee counted ballots and arrived at a decision. A poke bonnet and a sombrero, in lieu of a coronet and a crown, went to the winners.

Homecoming court: Evie Narkus, queen, Jim Clark, king; Joan Evans, Helen Nielsen, Bette Drummond, Polly Lindert, Bill Groogan, Roy Lave, Tom Wallace, Art Koustik

Hi-Teens float: Barbara Goff, Ruth Cohenour, Jean Gjerde, Marilyn Guillaume

Voting booths: Marilyn St. Aubin (feet), Joan Walczak, Judy Howell

November Meant Election Time

Tallying the ballots: James Veld, Diane Zarantonello, Joe Zmudka, Joan Webster, Jean Conley

Voting procedure: Arland Grant, Walter Roehler, Lois Cohenour, Carol Mazies, Jeanne Thies, Janice Nygren, Kay Harrison, Marilyn Gustafson

In the Social Studies department, realistic voting procedures were set up in all classrooms on November 4. The Little Theatre became the polling place for the rest of the school.

Studies of platforms were made ahead of time. Voters were required to register. Clerks, challengers, and election judges were briefed on what to do. At the end of the day, when the ballots were counted, the school had voted pretty much as the state and nation had done.

Making the Argo Sailor: Louis Ursitti, Gayle Kay, Shirley Peterson, Kathy Goletz, Chuck Anetil, Carol Schweikert, Chuck Curletti, Beth Davis

Art Classes Help With School Projects

Jewelry making: Donna Lybarger, Bryan Arveson

Art classes worked for the school as well as themselves. There was the Argo sailor destined to burn to a crisp atop the Homecoming bonfire.

There were the lovely ornaments for the huge Christmas tree and the fascinating decorations swinging from the lights all down the corridors.

Posters went up, too, for all sorts of events, and in jewelry class, some beautiful pieces were fashioned. They drew flattering comments at the biennial exhibit.

Poster production: Donna Schwartzkopf, Bill Baron, Shirley Shipe, Dick Sublette

Biology: Ann Spencer, Carol Augustine, Mr. O'Brien

Science Classes Tried Experiments

Strange what you can see under a microscope or what you can mix up in a test tube. Following the steps in a work book or a lab manual brought interesting discoveries. Biology became more than just a word on a program card.

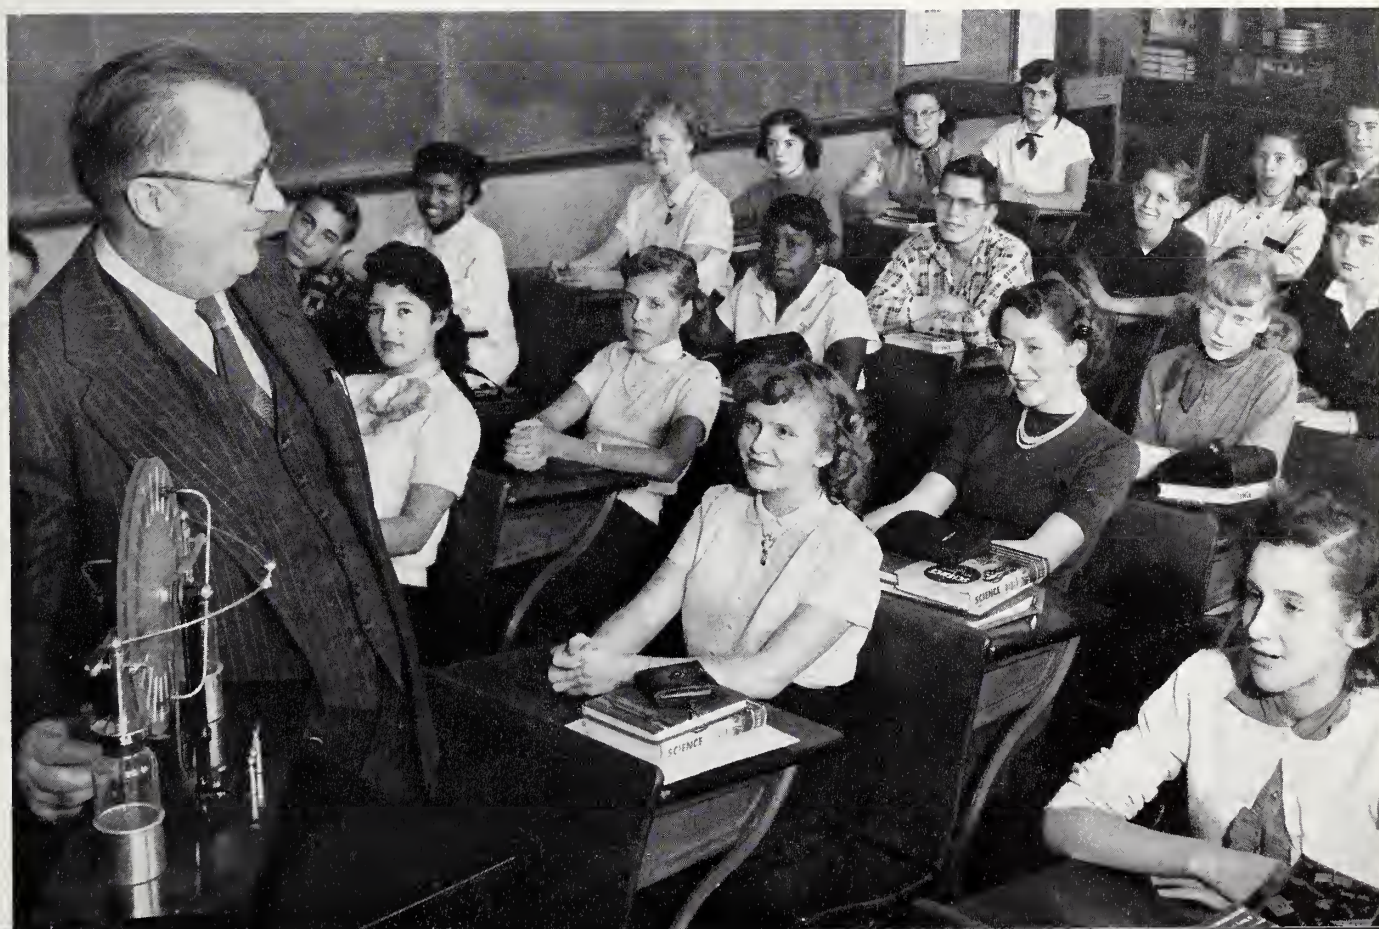

Physics experiments and General Science demonstrations were fun to watch and even more interesting to do, yourself, once you got over the feeling of strangeness the first time you tried a new gadget. Seeing what could happen to a piece of rubber or hearing the snap of static electricity made science more than theory. And if you were a girl and couldn't get all that physics stuff, there were boys to help out.

Physics: Bob Gale, Bob Gibson

General Science: Mr. Schilb demonstrates to his class.

Forge and Anvil: Mr. Rowe, Richard Sterkowitz, Raymond Ritchie

Shops and Counters

Salesmanship Class: Rita Barr, Norma Tanis

"Forgers Wanted" might be said at Thornton too. Anyway, the boys in Mr. Rowe's class got to learn about forges and anvils.

At the same time, across the hall, the new wood shop power machines speeded up projects, but there were still hand operations to be performed.

Upstairs, on the third floor, sales counters were being arranged with an eye to what women were interested in—their looks. This was happening in the business class where principles of salesmanship were studied.

Wood Shop: Bob Bonnema

Sons and Moms, Gals and Dads

Yearbook pictures: Mr. J. J. Juby (photographer),
Herb Greiner

Dad-Daughter party: Svea Blomquist, Mr. J. E. Blomquist

Dads helped daughters entertain at the Dad-Daughter party. Moms tried to understand the big machines the night their sons showed them around.

Yearbook pictures were ever present and biologists warned of patent medicines.

Mother-Son party: Bill Wilkes, Mrs. James Wilkes

Biology showcase: Sandra Skye, Mary Beth O'Connor

Speech broadcast: Vivian Anderson, Jerry Cara, Warren Radtke, Laura Portz, John Murphy, Dave Figlewski, Sue Crowley

Puppet show: Nancy Jacobs, Loretta Egofske, Sandra Jehu, Wayne Rothermel.

Broadcasts and Puppets

Radio speech class always liked the play backs so they knew how their own voices sounded. A mike, a broadcast booth, and a recorder were part of their equipment.

French Club puppeteers had their stage set up and their puppets ready whenever there was a chance to give a performance. Several plays were in their repertoire.

Work in the shops went noisily on when big machines like the band saw were turned on.

Concerts, carol singing, and gay dancing ushered in the Christmas season.

The Madrigal Singers, in costume, caroled at the annual Christmas concert and in the halls of Thornton the afternoon school closed for vacation.

The "Polar Bear Hop," Junior-Senior party, though it came just after vacation, was a continuation of holiday gayety. Introduction of the Bunny Hop, a new dance, was the feature of the evening.

Junior-Senior party: Audrey Swanson, Jon Valbert, Arlene Hasemen, Jack Drucker

Band Tag Day: Tom Van Dommelen, Vivian Anderson, Alice Roney, Jim Ertle

Wintertime Brought Music

Trying it on: Yvonne Wein, Joyce Falica

Homemakers Model Fashions

Modeling the dresses they had made, girls in the Home Ec department proudly strutted before their mothers and class mates at their annual style show.

Costumes had to be planned and materials purchased before the actual cutting, fitting, and sewing could begin. Discussions of colors, fabrics and styles were all-important.

Modeling it: Alice Roney, Darlene Kaminski

Home Ec Style Show: Beverly Frebel, Martha Garner, Maryesther Hansen, Joyce Button, Miss Elizabeth Ford

Is it the right type for the occasion? Is it the amount I want to invest? Will it do something for me? These were the questions each girl was asking herself.

Thorntonites Even Studied

Whether it was math problems or hearing problems or social ones, Thorntonites had them all.

Plenty of thought went into class work. And besides, the time spent in hearing tests, TB tests, and the like, paid dividends in better health and better grades.

Audiometer test: Miss Lieb (school nurse), Linda Winegarner

Assemblies before major Boys Club and Girls Club parties also paid dividends in better social adjustment—what to do, how to do it, and why, in the treatment of guests.

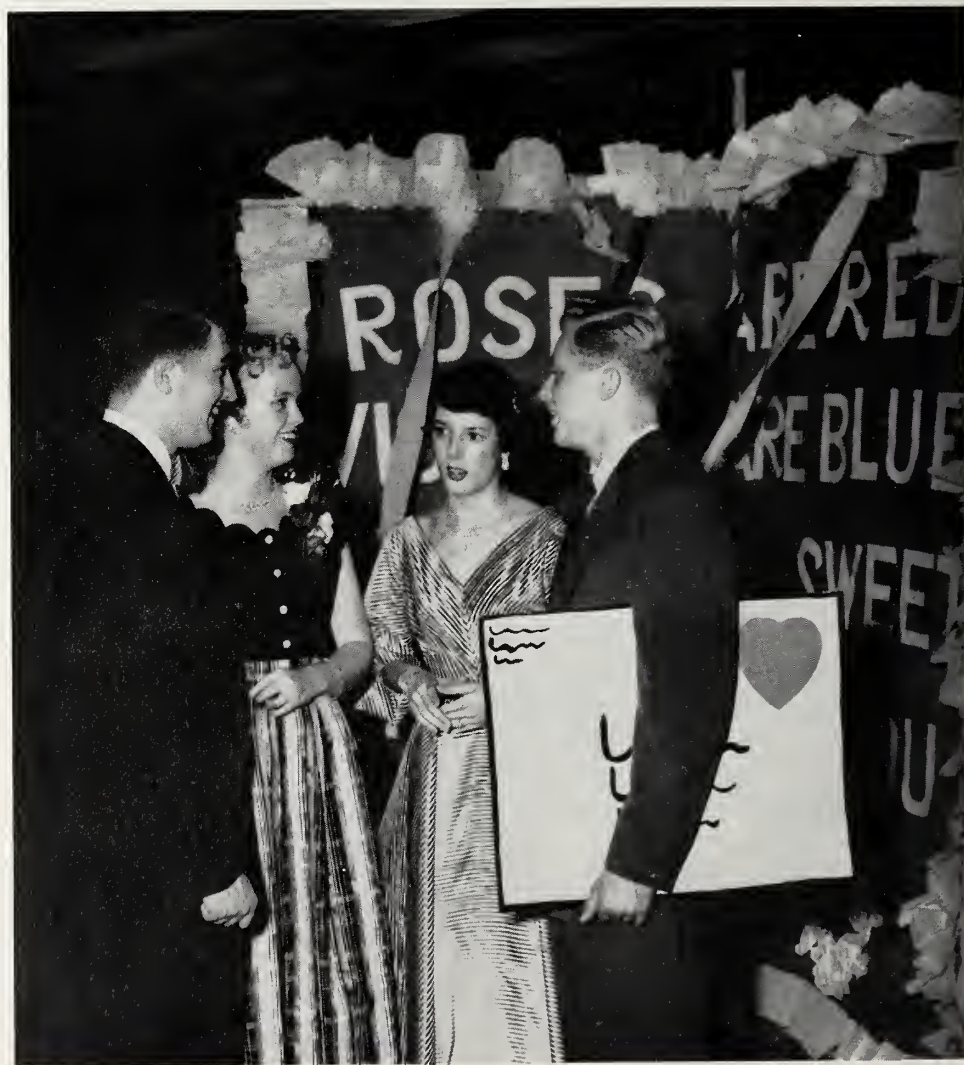

*Boys Club assembly:
Mr. Umbaugh, Dan Olfe,
Ron Stack, Larry Howell*

Faculty tea: Jeri Rendell, waitress, Esther Wiegel, pouring, Miss Shapiro, Barbara Logsdon, Mr. Stephens, Marilyn Butler, Miss Noel, Linda Wipior, Miss Johnson, pouring.

Spring Parties

KIP Valentine Dance: Sam Brunner, Marlene Fraser, Kay Harrison, Ren Walstra.

Father-Son Stag:
Jim Kernagis and his guest.

Girls Club dance: Pete Eckstein, Clare Bostwick, Mary Ann Klein, Porter Hay.

Parties for faculty, dads, girls, and boy friends closed winter and ushered in the spring season.

Only half the faculty could be squeezed into the Girls Club room, so this year it was the last half.

Stag party for Boys Club dads began with a tour of the shops.

Boys invited girls to the traditional KIP Valentine dance and girls had their turn at the Girls Club "Carioca" dance.

Debate class: John Abraham, Janet Meyer, Deborah Maxell (speaking), Kenneth Fritzsche

Practice . . . To Be Good

Getting anywhere in debate competition meant study and research and thinking (hardest of all), and practice—always practice.

The same thing happened in music. Whether it was Metropolitan Debate Union competition or district and state music contests, there was no substitute for practice.

Hardest of all was to get up before your own classmates. Strangers were much easier to make an impression upon.

And what did you get out of it? Well, you came out ahead in the contests and you got close enough to graduation to order your announcements.

Studio lesson: Herb Greiner, Mr. Hopkins

Ordering Senior announcements: Harriet Sudds, Bob Clement, Sue Sublette

Paint spots on the gym

Registration: Rod Hanson. Mr. Beier

Barber Shoppers: Dr. Hanson, Mr. Tilton, Mr. Beasley, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Armbruster, Mr. Clark, Mr. Goss, Mr. Petty, Mr. Sturm, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Harms, Mr. Zimmerman.

Variety Show Cleans Gym

Raising money to sandblast paint thrown by vandals on the new gym was the purpose of the all-school party, "Spots Before Your Eyes." A two-hour program of entertainment by faculty and students was followed by an open house dance.

Spring also meant registration for next year. Class principals were busy.

Prom Features Deep Seas

"Fifty-Two Fathoms" was the theme of the spring prom last year. Juniors, seniors, and their dates began a week-end of parties and picnics with this formal affair, as they danced in an underwater paradise in a beautifully converted gym.

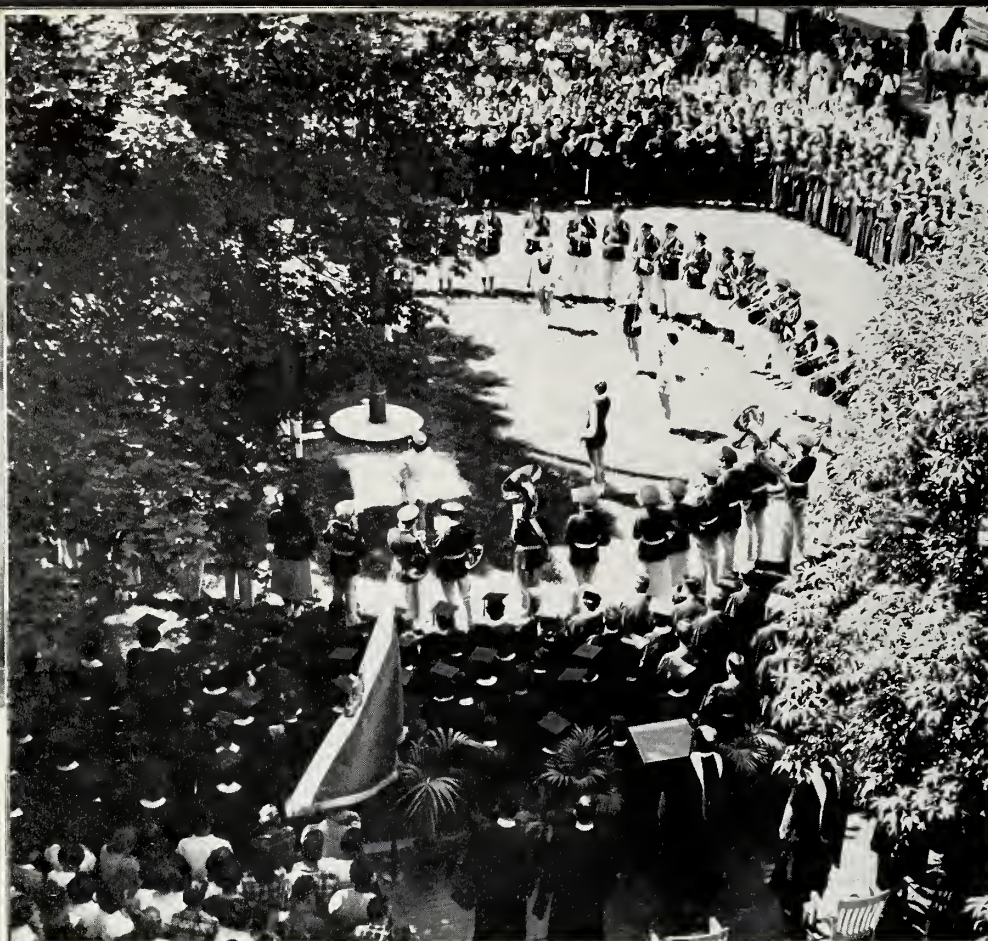

Except for autographing yearbooks, the exchanging of senior cards came pretty close to the end of things.

Senior calling cards: Jean Sykes, Joyce Major, Myra Scribner

Dancing at the junior-senior prom

Flag Day

National Honor Society tea

Honors Day assembly

Traditions Mark End of Year

Seniors in caps and gowns honor the nation's flag on Flag Day.

Naming of newly-elected members to National Honor Society climaxes a long list at the all-school Honors Day assembly. A tea for new members and their parents follows.

THE ACTIVITIES

While the T Bench was deserted, activities inside the building kept up at a lively pace. There were clubs, serious and social—plays, melodramatic and comic—situations, humorous and annoying—problems to be solved by teen-agers learning to be adults, all of them parts of that very complicated thing known as school life.

Thornton's Big Four

Thornton's Big Four are its four major organizations — Girls Club, Boys Club, KIP, and Purple X. These are all-school groups.

All girls are eligible to join the Girls Club; all boys, the Boys Club.

The KIP is Thornton's student council. The letters represent the three words of the school motto, "Knowledge Is Power." Each home room has its representative on the KIP forum. Board and officers are determined by all-school elections.

Purple X is a committee which sponsors open house dances following football and basketball games. New members are voted in by the old members. Leadership in school affairs is the qualification for membership; service to the school is the aim of the group. The name comes from purple, one of the school colors, and X, the unlimited service which the committee can perform.

Purple X Officers

KIP Officers

Row 1: Tom Wallace, president; Bill Stuart, 1st vice-president. Row 2: Polly Lindert, treasurer; Sue Stewart, 2nd vice-president; Helen Nielsen, secretary.

Girls Club Officers

Big Four

When a project becomes school-wide, all four organizations combine their backing. Pep sessions, homecoming, assemblies, school betterment plans, though sponsored by one of the groups, receive help from the others.

KIP Board

Row 1: Beth Vandenberg, Linda Schaefer.
Row 2: Mike Eckstein, Jack Keenan, Charles Anetil, Roy Lave.
Row 3: Al Lowery, Wayne Kruger, Fred Bunch, Cliff Deupree, Dan Olfe, Larry Howell, Trent Owings.

Purple X Committee

Row 1: Beth Vandenberg, Merrill Moss, Eleanor Whitford, Jane Bremer, Pat Schoeler, Barbara Anderson, Geraldine Thurman.
Row 2: Peggy Heino, Svea Blomquist, Mr. O. F. Umbaugh, Miss Helene Wilson, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Pauline Peirce, Sonya Monroe, Beverly Harde-way.

Boys Club Board

Row 1: Al Lowery, Bill Stuart.
Row 2: Larry Howell, Jack Wentz, Jim Olsen.

Big Four Boards, Committees

Big Four boards and committees got into action the minute school started, it seemed. And so did other groups.

Girls Club and Boys Club vied with each other to get a higher percentage of members into their clubs.

Thorntonite reporters interviewed the new superintendent, Dr. Hanson, scurried around for news, and had the first paper ready for distribution in two weeks.

There was a Purple X dance after the first football game, with Morgan Park.

Freshman girls were invited to an affair called the Freshman Stand-Up, sponsored by the Girls Club, and began to wonder what that would be like.

KIP staged a pep session in the gym and the Boys Club got its hallguard captains named and period groups organized.

A PTA tea for Dr. Hanson and a Faculty Association picnic helped get the new teachers acquainted with the rest of the faculty.

An all-school assembly was sponsored by the Purple X, featuring Judge Luther W. Youngdahl as special speaker.

New officers of the Hall Guard Organization, sponsored by the Boys Club, began at once to marshal their members into an efficient force.

There was a boy assigned to every post throughout the school—hall, campus, and buses. Hall guards, campus patrol, and bus guards began taking over their new duties.

They saw that cleanliness and quiet were maintained in the corridors, and that visitors were assisted about the school.

The campus was kept free of paper and refuse during the lunch periods, and safety rules were enforced to combat reckless driving about the building during these periods.

Buses began their daily routes, bringing students to and from school. On each was stationed a bus guard who saw to it that discipline and safety were practised during the runs.

After these boys once again were seen at their posts about the building, school life seemed to become established for the year. The familiar sentinels now challenged those who strolled through the empty halls during class period.

And so, again the familiar question, "Have you got a pass?"

Row 2: Ed Pacyga, period 5; Ken Savage, period 5; Larry Abraham, period 6; Glen Tucker, period 8; Jim Scott, period 3.

Bus Guards

The play cast of The Rivals, garbed in their period costumes, visited homerooms to sell tickets to the Boys and Girls Club play, while members of the National Honor Society busily took orders for the senior class pins.

The Variety Show put on by the PTA combined student, faculty, and outside talent. The main purpose of the show was to raise money for scholarships to Thornton Junior College.

Election year brought feverish activity for the political science students, who boosted their favorite candidates. All students registered and voted in their history classes under the watchful eyes of student election officials. When all the votes were in and counted, the results showed Thornton went to Eisenhower.

Period 1

Hall Guards—Period 4

Assemblies, Music Tryouts

Freshmen soon got their first experience as participants at the pep assemblies in the new gym. It wasn't long before they caught on to the cheers and yelled along with the rest.

The language clubs got under way, holding their elections and submitting new members to complicated initiations which seem to get more involved each year.

The kids in Mixed Chorus cleared their throats, ran up and down a few scales, and commenced trying out for Madrigal.

In another room, tryouts for the Keydets were held. By the end of October, these singing groups had their new members chosen.

Locker Mirrors, Traffic Problems

The band solved a lot of the girls' problems when they sold mirrors which miraculously stuck to locker doors!

Band members also sold copies of their new recordings, including the "Alma Mater". The money made from these sales went toward another band tour.

Seniors started flashing their class rings proudly before the eyes of the lower classmen.

Thornton's fourteen new teachers found themselves showered with invitations to teas, and appointments for THORNTONITE interviews and pictures. It wasn't long before they were caught up in the whirl of Thornton's activities.

The traffic problem at Thornton was met squarely by a committee composed of students, teachers, residents, and local police officials.

With Dr. Hanson presiding over the conference, they drew up new parking regulations to relieve the congested areas around the school.

The committee promptly put the new program into effect, registering student drivers, issuing special stickers for their cars, and assigning parking places in the school's parking lots. In this way, a serious situation was corrected.

Period 2

Row 1: Norman Nelson, Bernard Schara, Gib Vanderaa, John Keranen, Kenneth Hellstrom.
Row 2: Ted Thompson, Stanley Czyl, George Havens, Jerry Fitzgerald, Joseph Hasier.
Row 3: Larry Stoudt, Bob DeVries, George Ramsay, Robert Brassfield, Bill Broughton.

On Institute Day, Thornton's Art Department again arranged a workshop period for visiting teachers.

In addition to the pictures on display, a number of art students were present, working with clay, textiles, and jewelry.

Students and teachers alike were shocked and angry when huge, messy streaks of red and white paint were discovered on the entrance to the school building and the new gym just before the Bloom football game. If the incident was designed to crush Thornton's spirit, it failed. The Wildcats went on to defeat Bloom 21-7 that Friday.

Jerry Joswick, noted photographer, highlighted the Mother-Son party with his film "A Landlubber Goes to Sea." The Moms were shown the new gym, home economics rooms, and the shops.

Tradition was altered when the Girls Club decided to change its annual Dad-Daughter banquet to a party, too.

Entertainment featuring dad-daughter acts was followed by light refreshments in the cafeteria. The Dads, seated and served by their daughters, joined in the community sing which brought the evening's festivities to a close.

Artists and Vandals

Period 3

Row 1: Melvin Abbott, Louis Pemberton, Roy Nagel, Donald Compagnoni, Ray Mikrut, Ted Sampson, Jim Scott. Row 2: Edward Wroblewski, Nicholas Wyman, Jim Pokracki, Bill Wassner, Joe Hasik, Marshall Trkula, Bill Lively. Row 3: Darryl Mack, Paul Slater, Tim Johnson, William Valow, Dave Bickley, Vic Stateler, Tom Mailloux, Joe Asher.

Period 7

Magazines and Games

Although it was still November, seniors began thinking about June, 1953, as they chose the style of their graduation announcements.

Once again students started pounding the sidewalks in search of prospective magazine subscribers. Yes, the Magazine Drive was off to a flying start with a flood of announcements, assemblies, and awards.

"Ye-e-a, team!" With the first cheer of the season, the basketball team went to work. Every week students and adults turned out to watch the Wildcats get into shape as a first-class team.

The Christmas spirit was ushered in by the yearly Christmas Tag drive sponsored by the Girls Club to raise funds for the Welfare committees.

Period 8

Holiday Concert

The choral groups and the orchestras began practising special numbers as the Christmas season approached.

Each year Thornton's Music Department combines its efforts to produce the annual Christmas concert.

Features in the program were the candle lighted processional, the English carollers, a ballet number, a pantomime, and the final number, "Sleigh Ride," rendered by the combined choral groups and orchestra.

This year's performance was enjoyed by the largest audience ever attending a musical event in the history of Thornton. The new gym was filled to its capacity by those who came to hear the traditional Christmas music.

Christmas Decorations

Thornton art students "decked the halls," literally, with a profusion of Christmas ornaments and decorations.

The Purple X paid for the materials used in the attractive hall trimmings and the KIP bought the huge tree, decorated and placed in its usual spot by the Lincoln statue.

Strains of familiar carols sung in strange tongues drifted through the building as the language students sang them in French, Latin, German, and Spanish.

The Footlighters, student dramatics club, put the final touch to the holiday season with their presentation of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol."

With the beginning of the new year, the flu epidemic hit Thornton. Record numbers of students were absent from school, converging at the nurses office on their return. Even the teachers were affected, many of them confined at home for several days. A number of classes found substitute teachers taking over the classrooms for a time.

One of the first social events of 1953 was the Home Economics style show and tea. Mothers watched as the girls modeled outfits they had sewed in class.

Girls Club Committees

Girls Club Scholarship Day was an exciting one for those who had earned one or more semesters of "A's." That was the day they answered to their names announced from the stage during an assembly and each went forward to receive a scholarship pin. The pin was theirs to wear for one semester.

The names of those girls with seven semesters of "A's" were engraved on a silver pitcher which occupies a place of honor in the Girls Club room. This year there were four girls to receive the honor, the highest bestowed by the Girls Club.

Welfare is one of the Girls Club's most important activities. The Home for Incurables, a Chicago non-charity institution, is visited regularly. The proceeds from the sale of Christmas tags are used to finance such welfare projects as CARE, the Oak Forest Infirmary, and a needy grade school in Tennessee.

Another activity in which the girls take part is the management of the refreshment stand at home football games. Some sell candy, pop, and hot dogs from the building, while others with baskets go to sell along the bleachers.

Girls Club Chairmen

Row 1: Mary Ann Wolanin, refreshment crew; Laura Portz, marshals; Jeanne Sykes, refreshment crew. Row 2: Pat Schoeler, welfare; Connie Crenshaw, refreshment crew; Marilynn Guillaume, welfare.

Plenty of Jobs

There are many committees whose duties call for donated time and energy from the girls. Any member may take part in planning the Girls Club events that come up throughout the year. Committee lists are posted so that those interested may sign up.

It is through this service that girls learn by doing. At the same time, they earn their purple and white "T" pins, which are a requirement for anyone wishing to hold an office in the club.

Money-Making Schemes

The play managers are students selected to oversee the production of the Girls and Boys Club play. Once each year the clubs work together in selecting, casting, and producing a play performed on two successive nights. The proceeds go toward the payment of special speakers for school assemblies.

A large group of students known as the Homecoming Committee combine their efforts in planning Thornton's Homecoming week-end.

The festivities started with the traditional bonfire on Thursday, followed by the homecoming parade and the big football game with Argo on Friday. After Thornton's win on the gridiron, everyone's thoughts turned to the big dance on Saturday night.

Homecoming Fun

That night, with the new gym appropriately decorated to carry out the theme of "Frontier Days," the couples eagerly waited for the announcement of the Homecoming King and Queen. As the two were crowned with a gay poke bonnet and a rakish sombrero, the last bit of tradition was concluded for another year.

The freshmen now had had their first glimpse of Thornton's Annual homecoming, and could look forward to three more such week-ends of fun and excitement. For the seniors, the future would only hold memories of these gala events of which they had been a part.

The Girls and Boys Clubs worked together on another project, the Magazine Drive. This, too, is for the purpose of raising funds to help pay for special assemblies throughout the year.

There were contests between the homerooms and between the salesmen to see who could bring in the most subscriptions, and prizes were awarded to winners. The teachers of winning homerooms received orchid corsages.

The beginning of the school year saw a heretofore inexperienced newspaper staff working energetically to get out that first issue of the THORNTONITE.

The new reporters rushed to meet deadlines and scurried out to seek advertising. They learned how to write a headline, how to figure column inches, and how to get an interview. Before long, they began to feel like old hands at the newspaper business.

Besides learning the methods of editing a school newspaper, the members of the staff got invaluable training as individuals, developing tact, punctuality, and responsibility.

Paste-up

Mary Altier, Ron Stack, Janis Barnett.

Sports Reporters

Jim Fawcett, Bill McGill.

Newspaper, Yearbook

During the school year, a group of Journalism students attended the State High School Press Association meetings at the University of Illinois to hear special lectures and to take part in group discussions.

Later, another group of students went to a business management and advertising conference at Northwestern University. Here, the different phases of advertising in high school publications were covered. These conferences did much to broaden the students' knowledge of newspaper and yearbook work.

The THORNTONITE distributors were another hard-working group on the paper. Each Wednesday morning these girls reported to the THORNTONITE office, counted out the papers they needed, and waited for the homeroom period to begin. Then, armed with their lists of subscribers and armfuls of the papers, they covered their routes.

Blood Drive

One school-wide project that got whole-hearted support from the students and faculty was the Red Cross blood drive.

Special assemblies were held for each class to impress upon them the need for blood plasma for the boys in the armed service. Each student was asked to get one donation card filled out by someone who was over eighteen years of age and could meet the necessary physical requirements.

Action was started early in the new year to raise funds to clean the paint smears off the school building and new gym. A faculty committee decided that the best plan would be to stage a big variety show, planned and carried out by the students themselves.

The students responded with enthusiasm, forming committees to carry out the extensive project.

The committees decided to present a variety show first, followed by an open house dance. The entire evening of entertainment and dancing could then be had for the purchase of a seventy-five cent ticket.

Extensive publicity in the form of news stories, posters, and skits soon had everyone waiting for the big night, March 20.

When it took place, the variety show proved to be a combination of first-rate student acts, numbers by local talent, and performances by well-known outside entertainers. The dance was equally enjoyed by those attending the event.

Thornton had put over a big show for a big cause.

Dress-Up Parties

But it wasn't all work and no play. Students found plenty of social activities to engage their attention. January, February, and March brought a flurry of basketball games and dances.

There was the excitement of the regional and sectional games held at Thornton; the loyal support given to the teams by the cheerleaders and students.

The Junior-Senior party led off the procession of dances, followed by the KIP Valentine Dance. Dress-up clothes were in order as these very special events claimed the attention of the students. And it was at one of these dances that the popular "bunny hop" was introduced as a dance step by the orchestra.

The mid-term graduates concluded their studies and completed their plans for leaving Thornton ahead of the other graduating seniors. It seemed strange to find them absent from familiar classes and after-school activities.

Teachers and students began looking forward to the Faculty Tea, given every year by the Girls Club. The guest teachers, invited by the major and minor officers and the tea committee were served refreshments and enjoyed music.

The favors, decorations, and invitations were in keeping with Washington's birthday.

Mid-Term Grads

Carioca Dance

Although it wasn't leap year, girls began asking their favorite fellas to the Girls Club turn-about dance.

With "Carioca" as its theme, the evening was filled with Spanish atmosphere. A gay, carnival spirit kept the girls and their dates dancing in the Spanish setting to "la musica bailable" (dance music).

Pictures

As the year passed, more and more photos were taken to fill the pages of the yearbook.

At the dances, games, and all other events, the flash bulbs recorded scenes and activities to help students recall the past year when June brought school to a close.

Club officers were posed and snapped, committees were pictured, and everyone was dying to get a glimpse of the results.

But there were still many more events to take place before the photograph file for the year was complete. There would be gym jams, spring sports, and other special times to enjoy.

United Nations Club

Programs

One of the outstanding assemblies of the year had as special speaker Clifton Utley, noted columnist and news commentator. A lively half hour period of questions from the students added much to the assembly program. This was Mr. Utley's second appearance at Thornton for such a talk.

Thornton's active music department presented many programs during the year, one of which was the Orchestra and Chorale Concert.

At this program, feature numbers were a violin and a flute solo, and special selections by the Girls Choir and the Keydets.

Spanish Club

Dances

A new touch was added to the dance given by the Hi-Teens Tri-Hi-Y. They chose for their theme "Mardi Gras Masquerade." This meant that everyone came in costume. The entertainment and decorations were patterned after the Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans.

Another all-school assembly, held before spring vacation, featured the sixty-voice A Capella Choir from the University of Dubuque.

The first student librarians' conference in this area took place at TTHS, concluded with a supper and social hour.

French Club

Row 1: Merrill Moss, vice-president. Row 2: Goldie Cochrane, treasurer; Loretta Davis, president; Eleanor Whitford, secretary.

Guidance

The Social Studies Department devoted time and money to an extensive guidance program which aided the freshmen in choosing a vocation suited to their individual abilities, interests, and personalities. Parents were asked to come to school for explanations and consultations.

The language clubs continued to meet on successive Wednesdays and managed to present varied and interesting programs for the language students.

The boys on the Projection Squad served the whole school as they showed educational and entertaining films to the classes throughout the year.

Debate

Row 1: Barbara Fairbairn, Richard Sublette, Pat Oviatt, Louella Backlin.

Row 2: Peter Eckstein, Carl Steiner, Raymond Boyens, Amos Case.

Thornton

Debate teams worked hard all year, coming through with a record at the annual debate tournament that enabled them to go down state.

The Medical Arts Club, better known as the MAC's, is for girls interested in careers in medicine, nursing, or as laboratory technicians. During their initiation, new members of the club were seen in the halls with white nurses' caps perched on their heads. Assistants for the school nurses are chosen from the membership of this club every year.

The United Nations and Political Science clubs are two organizations where students can meet to discuss current events and political problems.

Medical Arts Club

Clubs

Hi-C, which stands for Hi-Crusaders, met every Thursday to sing choruses, hear special music, and take part in devotional talks. One of the club's meetings was a Halloween party to which everyone came in costume. Another time the group enjoyed an outdoor picnic.

The Pedagogs are Thornton's chapter of Future Teachers of America. A guest from Orchard Hill kindergarten highlighted one of their meetings with a talk and films about teaching there. Other meetings featured similar speakers who discussed the teaching field.

UN Club belongs to the United Nations of greater Chicago. Political Science members have the opportunity to lead group discussions at the meetings.

Pedagogs

One of the Hi-Teens' big projects for the year was its dance, "Mardi Gras Masquerade."

Hi-Teens Tri Hi-Y

Row 1: Sandra Jones, president; Ruth Cohenour, vice-president. Row 2: Jean Gjerde, secretary; Barbara Goff, treasurer.

The Hi-Y, for all Thornton boys, combines YMCA and high school groups. Its purpose is to build character and teach parliamentary procedure.

Each year, two boys are sent to the University of Good Government, a simulated law-making body in Chicago. They get first-hand experience from this activity.

Stags Hi-Y

Richard Struzik, treasurer; Ron Muszynski, president; Llyn Lloyd, vice-president; Ernest Norden, secretary.

Kappa Chi lost several of its members during the year, so the others combined with the Hi-Teens.

Kappa Chi Tri Hi-Y

Camera Club members met to share their interest in photography. Trips to the dark room taught methods in the development and enlargement of pictures. Guest speakers were featured at the meetings.

Camera Club

Theodora Armatas, vice-president; Shirley Merrick, secretary; Cecilia Scobey, president; Marilyn Dausman, treasurer.

The Queen Teens, newly organized this year, strive to create friendship between the girls in school, home, church, and community. The members found fun and recreation through such activities as an all-night camping trip held early in the fall, and a tea given in the spring.

Graduation Plans

Graduation really seemed to be drawing near as seniors were measured for caps and gowns. For three years they had only watched as the graduates made preparations for commencement, but now it was happening to them. Although there were many weeks to go, these activities brought the big day closer.

Soon, calling cards and announcements arrived, and the seniors were exchanging the cards as they had exchanged their senior pictures.

It wouldn't be long now, before they were arranged in alphabetical order to practice the processional. And there would be Honors Day and Flag Day to take part in as the graduating class of 1953.

Yes, for the seniors, high school would soon be over.

Footlighters Club

Row 1: Charles Anctil, president. Row 2: Esther Wiegel, secretary; Verlee Russell, vice-president; Eddie Herbert, treasurer.

Student Dramatics

One of Thornton's most active clubs was Footlighters, student drama club. Its members learned to distinguish upstage from downstage, developed their acting ability, and planned stage settings for the plays they presented from time to time. Those who are especially interested in dramatics find experience and recreation in the club's activities.

The Footlighters' big play of the year was "Cheaper by the Dozen," given at an afternoon and an evening performance. The play was chosen by the club because it called for fifteen characters, allowing many people to take parts. Thorntonites portrayed the Gilbreth family from the five-year-old daughter on up.

"Dress Reversal"

Inspection

"Fingernail inspection! Let me see your fingernails."

And so the Gilbreth family of "Cheaper by the Dozen" line up for assembly. Mr. Gilbreth, like a hard-to-please general, handles part of his efficiency program.

Cheer Practice

What's that energetic young man yelling about? He is Anne's first boyfriend (an undersized cheerleader), giving out with a rousing cheer. It certainly roused Mr. Gilbreth!

Unfortunately, he failed to respond favorably to a "hoo, rah, ray, and a TIGER!"

Row 1: Amos Case, Galine Callas, Frances Novak. Row 2: Peter Eckstein, John Hampton.

Senior Scouts

Senior Scouts was an active service group throughout the year, doing welfare work and giving a helping hand to anyone needing it. Much of the group's time was spent on projects for near-by hospitals.

Officers:

Goldie Cochrane, secretary; Marilynn Guillaume, president; Elaine Wolf, vice-president; Elva Wolf, treasurer.

The Rivals

Leads

Audrey Counte as Lydia Languish; Chuck Anctil, Captain Jack Absolute.

Peter Eckstein as David; Christel Schuster, Lucy; Jerry Hetfield, Thomas; Dianne Roehler, chambermaid; Verlee Russell, Mrs. Malaprop; Ray Huttig, Fag.

Thornton was really proud when a man whose work was in the theater complimented the cast and director on their play, "The Rivals," in a letter to the THORNTONITE.

The performance of the play brought scenes from old England to Thornton's auditorium as the cast gave lively spirit to the characters. Period costumes were colorful and authentic, with everything from knee breeches to bustles. Clanking swords clashed in a ridiculous dueling scene between the young hero and the clumsy country bumpkin.

As it usually happens in every play, some members of the cast suffered from minor catastrophes, losing precariously fastened wigs or struggling to keep sliding stockings from falling down.

However, the show went on, bringing gales of laughter from the audience as the play's comical plot unfolded.

Eddie Herbert as Sir Anthony; Mary Hamilton, Mrs. Malaprop; Don Martin, Sir Lucius O'Trigger.

The Rivals

Dick Sublette as Bob Acres; Esther Wiegel, Julia Melville; Wayne Rothermel, Faulkland.

Plays, Contests

A number of musical Thorntonites went to Downers Grove to take part in the District Music Contest. Those trying for honors entered as instrument, twirling, and vocal contestants. It was an exciting moment for the lucky ones who learned at the close of the judging that they had gotten firsts.

There were days of anxious waiting as try-outs for the senior play, "The Night of January 16," began. This would be one of the last big events in the school lives of the seniors.

When the final curtain of the play, an exciting mystery, was rung down, the happy cast faced the audience with excitement and just a touch of regret that the experience was over.

Practice for the Spring Band Concert became more intense as the date for the Spring Band Concert neared. A large audience was again in attendance for this well-liked event.

Spring Fever

As the warm weather returned once again, signs of spring appeared at Thornton.

Kids began strolling along the campus during their lunch periods instead of waiting in the cafeteria for the bell, and the girls gym classes could be seen going to the outside playing field for physical ed. It became more difficult to concentrate in study hall as the days grew more and more pleasant.

Before long, thoughts turned toward the Junior-Senior prom. Committees busily made plans for the longed-for event as girls looked at spring formals and boys started thinking about renting a tux.

The new gym underwent a "face-lifting" in the hands of the decorations committee, who glamorized its interior for the dance.

Year's End Doings

Another gala dance that had taken place was the Orchid Promenade, part of the dedication festivities of Harvey's brand new YMCA. Here too, the gals had a chance to wear their prettiest formals.

Things started to move rapidly as June neared. Students began to buckle down when the yearly exams loomed in the near future for them. But there was still time for fun, too.

There had been gym jams, when all the facilities of the gym, including the new pool, were opened to everyone. The Last Chance Dance was exactly that, the last time for couples to get together for one more night of music, dancing, and entertainment before the school year ended.

Now, the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors lined up their programs of study for the next year, while the seniors made plans for getting jobs or going on to college in the fall.

Set a Fast Pace

And so, only a few more hectic days were left before school ended for the summer, days filled to overflowing with last minute things that are always a part of the remaining days of school.

There was the surprise of those juniors who had been chosen as graduation ushers, and the excitement of waiting until the new members of the National Honor Society were announced.

There was the mad rush of getting friends' signatures written in the 1953 yearbook, and the rapid turning of pages to find the picture of you-know-who.

And then there was commencement; the end of a very special period in the lives of the seniors who for four years had been a part of Thornton and its activities.

Orchestra

In June, the band played at the high school commencement, the orchestra for that of the Junior College, lending the strains of the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance."

The orchestra had several activities for its members during the year, such as the "play day" party in the new gym when the students enjoyed all the equipment for a day of fun.

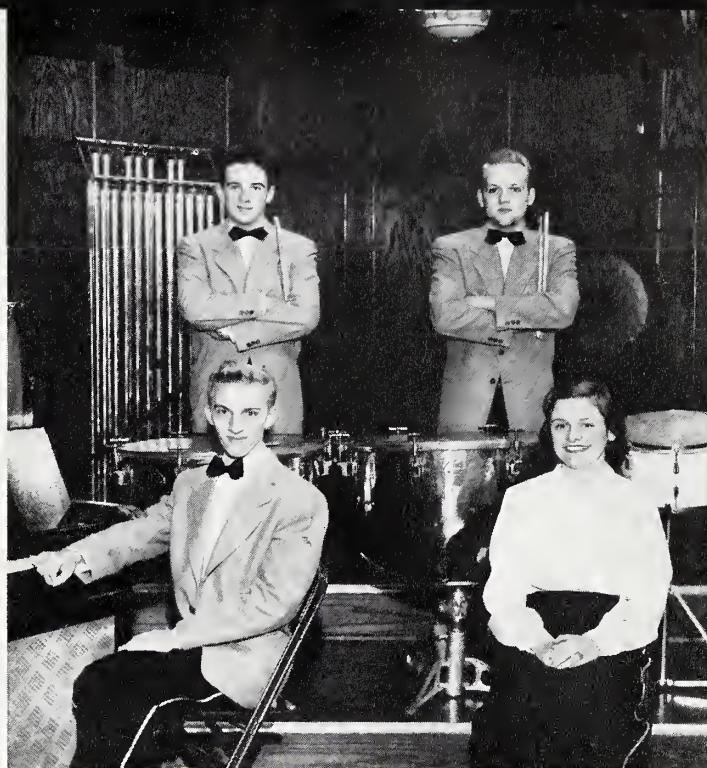

The orchestra, besides playing with the band in musical programs from time to time, provided music at three of the plays given.

Band

At the band and orchestra picnic, which is held every year, awards were given out to the students.

When the band and orchestra went on tour to the University of Indiana, they performed a "bandchestra number" in which both of the groups' efforts were combined. Such a number was also featured at the Spring Festival. At this festival, all the musical groups again joined to present a big program of music for the public.

THE ATHLETICS

Some games were spectacular, others ordinary. Some were for the public, others part of the regular school day. But whatever their purpose, they gave everybody—players and spectators alike—a chance to develop good sportsmanship and loyalty. They gave a chance to be of service to Thornton, their school.

Lettermen's Club

Cheerleaders

Polly Lindert, Helen Nielsen, Sue Stewart, Bette Drummond, Evie Narkus, Claudia Fenwick, Nancy Chisser.

South Suburban League Champions! That's the honor claimed by Thornton's football Wildcats for the 1952 season. After two early season defeats, the Cats roared through seven games, five of them conference tilts, to finish with a 7-2 record.

To top off the championship laurels, Thornton placed seven players on the league All-Stars: Rod Hanson, John Krikau, Larry Stoudt, Ed McChristian, Bob DeVries, Jim Clark and Tom Wallace. Only a junior, Hanson was also given mention on the All-State football team.

Game Ushers

L'il Ed McChristian was the scoring sparkplug of the high-powered Cat offensive, tallying thirteen touchdowns and adding one extra point. Wallace registered 4 times to ring up 24 while Glenn Willing booted through 15 extra points.

Even with the loss of the entire first string backfield, hopes are high for next season. Both wingmen, Cliff Deupree and Hanson, are returning as well as a lot of rugged linemen. The backfield will probably look much like the soph aggregation of 1951.

GAMES

Morgan Park 14, Thornton 7—Mac went 98 yards with a fumble recovery for the only Cat score. But, the Cats looked unimpressive in their debut.

Maine 20, Thornton 6—McChristian started things with an end sweep, but Maine erupted for three scores and the game. Despite the defeat, Thornton showed vast improvement. It was to be the last defeat of the season.

Thornton 6, Blue Island 0—The march was starting! Hanson dashed 76 yards with an intercepted pass for the one and only TD. The line threw back every Cardinal thrust. Ed Pacyga and Hanson headed the rough n' tough forward wall.

Games

Thornton 28, Danville 7 — The previously unbeaten Maroons felt the full sting of the Thornton offense as McChristian raced over for 4 touchdowns. The defensive wall had the Danville backs hanging on the ropes.

Thornton 28, Fractional 20 — Tom Wallace and McChristian scored two times apiece as the Cats survived a second half brawl to come out on top for the third straight time. After the game flaring tempers and flying fists reigned briefly.

Thornton 13, Argo 6 — Pre-season favorites for the league title, the Sailors hit paydirt first on a 54-yard dash by Kirksey, but Clark and Deupree collaborated on a 54-yard pass. Bob DeVries and Wallace plowed up the Argo line with Tom getting the final score. The losers gained only 58 yards.

Games

Thornton 6, Leyden 0—Leyden's Homecoming was a failure. Though the Cats garnered only one TD, the Eagle line was ripped to shreds. McChristian did the scoring. An improvement was made on defense, the Cats beating their own Homecoming show by holding Leyden to 3 yards and one first down.

Thornton 21, Kankakee 7—Mr. Mac scored two more with Wallace going through for the third. The Kays were never in the game.

Thornton 21, Bloom 7—Thornton grabbed an undisputed championship by blasting the arch-rival Trojans. Mac added two more to his bulging total. Big DeVries, whose dynamite running led the Cats all season, finally hit pay-dirt by crashing over from two yards away with six seconds left in the game.

Soph Season

While the Senior Cats were winning the conference title, Thornton's sophomores had more than their share of hard luck, as they built up a mediocre 3-5 season record.

When coaches Czech or Blaha were in need of one of their stalwarts, they could usually find the same relaxing in a hospital bed.

Chief among the injuries were tailback Dick Bennot's shoulder and the ankle of end Ed Shields. Both occurred in the Argo homecoming tilt.

The season was not a dull one though for Jan Zapchenk, Kit fullback, led the early surge, scoring six times in the first three contests. He finished with 36 points.

In the front line George Harrop stood out as the individual spark, while Rich Arning and Guy Reynolds were outstanding at times, the times all of them were on their feet. (Seven were hurt in the Maine loss!)

Frosh Season

An undefeated season! Yes, sir, Thornton's Frosh footballers really showed up this year's Sophomores.

After tying a game Blue Island team 0-0 in the opener, the Frosh fought stubbornly to pile up a fine record of 5 wins and 1 tie. Among their victims were Bloom, 19-13, East Kankakee, 38-6, Cal City, 18-0, Leyden, 12-0, and West Kankakee, 19-0.

Outstanding for the Frosh were Killmer, Armstrong, Veldhuizen, Perkins, Balsam, Blank, Hanson, Fiddler, Golden, Riley, Vandera, DaBon, Springsteen and Ceres on defense. Some of the top backs were Truby, Maxwell, Austin, Olsen, Turner, Haddon, Hays, and Lindsay. Extra point man was Tom Stuart.

Benson

Dave Benson (38) bears down on Argo's Claude Aldridge in the 13-6 Cat triumph. Moving up in the background is Cliffe Deupree, Thornton wingman.

Sanford

Scatback Darnell Sanford (65) circles Blue Island's left end for Wildkittens. The 120-lb. Sanford and Jan Zapchenk sparked the 20-6 win.

Wallace

Cat on the rampage! The enraged-looking 59 is Tom Wallace being pulled down after a long gain in the Homecoming tilt by Argo's Mike Kirksey. Wayne Bock, Argo's All-American, is the number 82 moving up behind. Fred Bunch (41) and Norm Corsi (60) close in on the action.

Benchwarmers

McChristian

Above: Mr. Mac, Eddie McChristian (22) digs for the great beyond in the Blue Island tilt as Robb Roberts (32) leads the interference. The Cats won 6-0. Right: Oth! McChristian is getting "The Treatment" from Argo's Sailors in this shot of the Thornton victory. That's Jim Clark peering over Mac's shoulder and John Krikau looking through the gap.

Verne Allison dribbles past a much-astonished referee as Bill Groogan (24) watches.

Basketball

Though losing four starters through graduation, Tom Nisbet came up with another winning combination. The Cats finished in a second-place tie with Leyden, compiling a 9-5 league record. Overall, it was 17-9.

The Cats started off with 6 straight wins, downing Maine 63-44, York 57-54, Bloom 57-48, Moline 43-42, Leyden 59-49, and Bradley 52-49. Fractional spoiled the streak with a 54-47 win in overtime.

The Cats bumped Gary Emerson 58-53, then split a pair of league games, falling 75-57 to Blue Island and walloping Lockport, 74-52. DeKalb and Kankakee prevailed 62-48 and 54-35 respectively, but Argo fell 75-59. Bloom and Leyden bowed again, 55-50 and 53-50.

Riverside dumped Thornton 59-50, but the Cats gained revenge on Fractional, 60-39, and Blue Island 59-55. Lockport and Pekin were the final regular season victims, 60-49 and 59-54.

Kankakee won out in a wild 91-74 battle, while Oak Park and Argo were victorious 62-51 and 56-49 to close the schedule.

The tournaments were a different story as the Cats massacred Lockport, 67-48, then won an overtime thriller from Blue Island, 56-54. But Lady Luck deserted Thornton as Joliet nipped them in the regional finals, 62-61, with a last second overtime tally.

Varsity Games

Varsity and JV Squad

Row 1: Jack Keenan, Al Lowery, Larry Malm, Ronnie Carlock, Jack Yavenue, Ed McChristian. Row 2: John Allison, Verne Allison, Brooks Young, Jim Clark, Glenn Willing, Tom Wallace, Howie Russell, manager. Row 3: Sterling Scott, JV coach, Stanley Copeland, manager, Rod Hanson, Russ McKibben, Fred Roettiger, Cliff Deupree, Bill Groogan, captain, Gordon Ring, manager, Tom Nisbet, coach.

Russ McKibben, the lanky soph ace, holds the ball, while Jim Clark (35) and Bloom's Varallo and Marr (12) stare into the distance.

Soph Squad

Despite the loss of three promising ballplayers, Coach Bob Blaha's Frosh-Soph quintet turned in a fairly respectable season. Their overall record was eight wins and eleven losses. In League play they were brilliant at times, despite their five won and nine lost record.

The past season turned up many promising players in Wildkitten uniforms. There was Jack Foster, high scorer and good ballhandler, who was promoted to varsity in mid-season. Right behind him were Phil Schmidt, center, Dave Wickersham and Ed Creach, forwards, Bill Lindsay and Jerry Harvey, guards.

Frosh-Soph

Before

Thornton fans thought they had won the Sectional.

Frosh Squad

Row 1: Charles Armstrong, Fred Perkins, Tim Abraham, Dave Turner. Row 2: Richard Killmer, Marvin Smith, Charles Clark, Tom Houts, Bob Hauser, James Kernagis, Jack Stroh, manager. Row 3: Jim Ries, ass't. coach, Tom Stuart, Lester Borms, Herman Ayres, Julius Hayes, Frank Bauman, coach. Row 4: Bob Smart, John Golden, Jim Nelson, Bob Miller, Paul Nees, Jack Taradash, Lonnie Austin, Jack Petty.

This year's edition of the Frosh buckateers opened their season like any Thornton quintet should by beating Bloom 34-22. After losing a 31-30 thriller to Leyden, they dumped Cal City 29-28.

After losing to Blue Island 40-29, the Frosh hopes suffered a blow when Lonnie Austin was injured before the 52-21 loss to Kankakee. The Frosh bounced back to beat Bloom again, but lost their second to Blue Island 33-28. Following a 44-24 win over Cal City, they ended the season with a 48-43 loss to Kankakee and a 46-38 loss to LaGrange.

Despite a four and six record, the Frosh had some promising boys in Chuck Clark, center, Bob Petty, Jack Taradash, and Bob Smart, forwards, and Chuck Armstrong and Tim Abraham at guard.

Games

After

They discovered the final score of a thriller-diller had gone the other way.

Varsity Squad

Sparked by sophomore Frank Davis, Captain Jim Phillips, and Jack Spuck, Thornton's mermen splashed through a 9 meet schedule with 7 wins and 2 losses; then ran away with the league final, piling up 88 points to 48 for Fractional, 17 for Argo, and 14 for Kankakee.

During the regular season, Fractional fell twice, 54-21 and 56-19, as did Argo, 56-18 and 57-9. Other victims were Morton 58-17, Fenger 54-21, and Hammond 44-31. Maine and Oak Park hung the only losses on the Sharks, 57-18 and 54-21.

Jack Spuck set a new medley mark at 1:48.5.

Swim

Frank Davis lunges in for the final leg of the record-setting medley relay turned in by Jim Hoffman (sitting), Tom Walker (in the water), and Davis, all sophomores.

In a record-breaking season that saw all but one standard change, Thornton's soph swimmers won five of six meets, losing only to Oak Park, 40-25.

Argo was crushed 60-6. Fractional crumbled twice, 55½-19½ and 63-12. Morton and Maine were measured 49-26 and 46-20.

Season

Tom Walker was the sparkplug of the team, racking up 60 points. He also grabbed second place in the finals of the varsity 100 breast stroke. But he had plenty of help from a bunch of talented sophs, mainly Jerry Hollingsworth, Jim Hoffman, and Bob Moldal.

Junior Bryan Arveson, one of two Thornton divers who went to the state meet, executes a somersault off the springboard.

Varsity Squad

Row 1: Bob Mercer, Carl Slager, Eric Mueller, Pete Fernandez, Ron Buttafoco, Bob Slevnik, Al Mahone. Row 2: Paul Flynn, Bill Young, Fred Bunch, Willie Bankhead, Don Morris, Richard Suhs, Norm Corsi. Row 3: Ted Czech, coach, Tony Avellano, captain, Benny Crisler, Bill Stuart, Jerry Hetfield, Mike Ruffalo, Jack Marchello, Don Peter, Tom Mulroney, manager.

Wrestling

Thornton wrestling was great! Fifteen regular season wins, the South Suburban championship, the MPMA Sectional trophy, and a second in the state meet at Champaign highlighted a most prosperous year.

In the state meet, Coach Ted Czech entered four men who won two championships for the Cats. Ben Crisler, only a soph, and Captain Tony Avellano won individual titles, while senior heavyweight, Norm Corsi, took a third.

Many believe that if Bob Slevnik, Cat 95-pounder, had not succumbed to appendicitis shortly before the state meet, Thornton would have had the first state wrestling championship in its history.

Thornton's Don Peter clamps far arm and leg carry on grimmacing Joliet opponent in night match at Harvey.

Soph Matches

Coach Jack Robinson's yearling mat squad continued its fine work, as they rang up a neat 9-1 season. The one loss to New Trier was the first since Robbie took the helm, three years ago.

Individual bright spots were many, with heavyweight Frank Triumph's 9-0 slate conspicuous. Bob Godwin was also unbeaten, while Don Paarlberg, Bob Small, Dick Richardson, and Bob Wargin looked like fine varsity material for next year.

Purple's once-beaten Bill Young sinks half nelson in his effort to pin Steelmen opponent.

Frosh-Soph Squad

Row 1: Jerry Smith, Larry Sons, Wayne VanSwal, Dave Whiston, Jim Isom, Rich Hopman, Alec McLaren, Dick Wentzle, Jerry Senesac, Jerry Keith. Row 2: Forest Jackson, Bob Hillyer, Bob Mear, Tom Walvoord, Mark Hanson, Bob Miller, Don Paarlberg, Bill Schram, Louis Christianson, Jim Haddon. Row 3: Vernon Lauson, manager, Lloyd Landry, Doug Richardson, Bob Wargin, Bob Godwin, Chuck Randle, Frank Triumph, Bob Small, John Maaskant, Bob Fiddler, Ken Malia, Jack Robinson, coach.

Pitchers Jim Clark, Terry Fox, and John Phillips talk it over.

Baseball

After breaking even in four games, the Cats, coached by Bob Blaha, finally came up with a combination that really showed promise. In the outfield were junior Bob Hames, the top hitter on the squad, and soph Benny Crisler flanking Ed McChristian. The infield of Rod Hanson, Bob Cima, Larry Malm, and Chico Flores was all-junior except for soph Dick Bennot behind the plate. The Big Three of the mound corps, Jim Clark, Terry Fox, and John Phillips, were all seniors.

Varsity Baseball

Varsity Track

Row 1: Bob De Vries, Edward Brown, Dick Lively, Donald May, Albert Turkington, Don Van Milligan, Coach Frank Bauman. Row 2: Tom Wallace, Richard Albert, Curtis Whitted, Brooks Young, Howard Russell, Kenneth Hellstrom, Don Trykall, Tom Norwich. Row 3: Jack Keenan, Ted Thompson, Roger Fosdick, John Schutz, Merrill Sauriol, Bryan Arveson, Gustav Hoyer, Al Jeske. Row 4: Porter Hay, manager, Willie Bankhead, Don Morris, David Wickersham, Larry Taylor, Dave Benson, Cliff Deupree, John McCaslin, Leonard Veldhuizen.

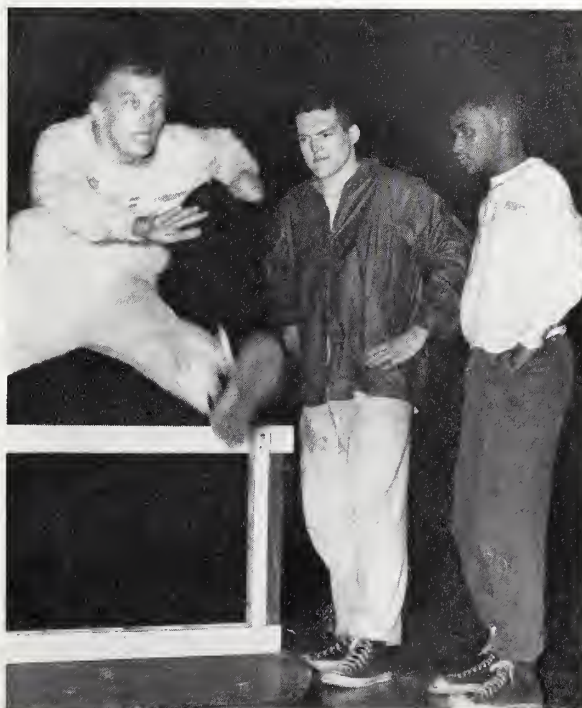

Although hampered no end by the loss of Ed McChristian and Al Lowery to the baseball wars, track coaches Frank Bauman and Jack Robinson put together a solid but not flashy squad.

Led by juniors Al Jeske, John McCaslin, Dave Benson, Roger Fosdick, Brooks Young, and Curt Whitted, and by soph Dave Wickersham, the cindermen will be indeed tough next season.

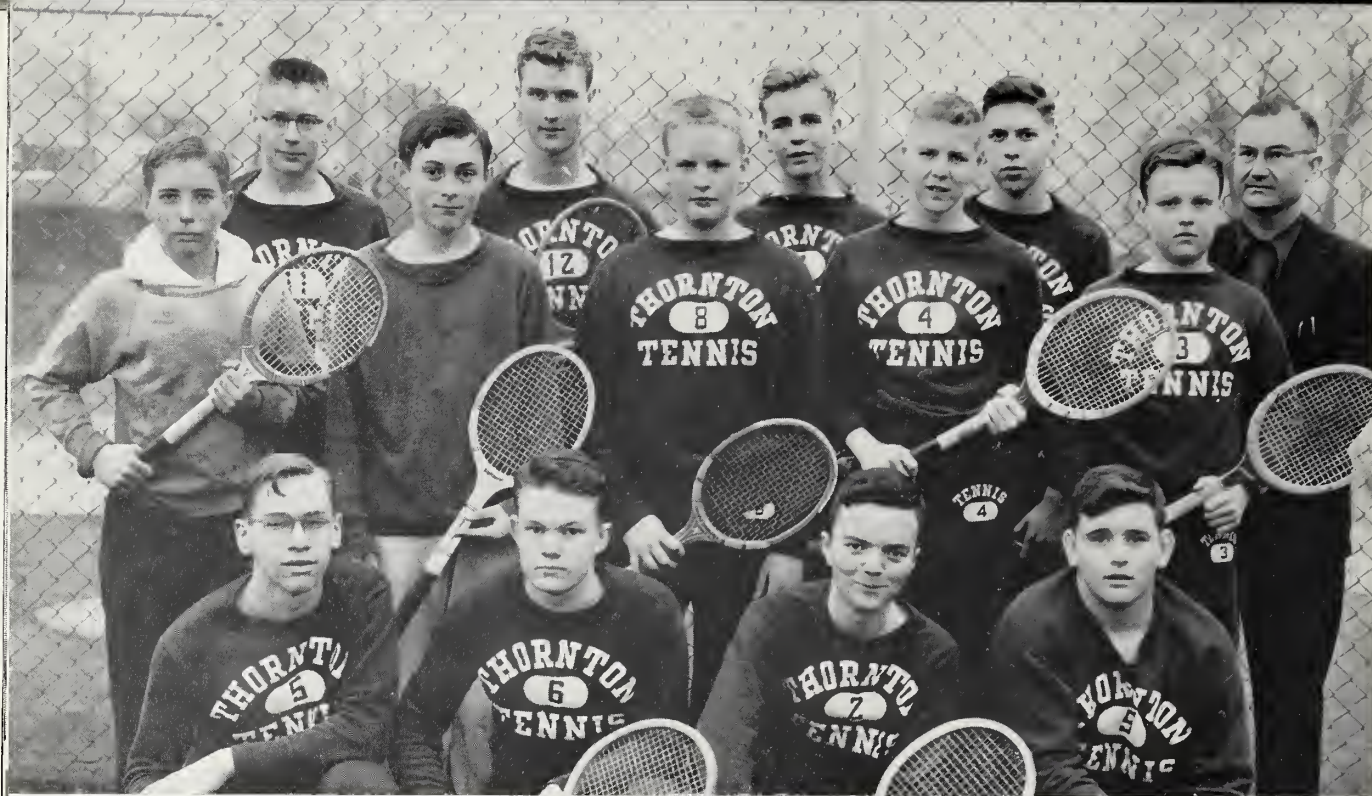

But not to be outdone, this season, the last year men shone particularly bright. Bob DeVries, Dick Albert, Chip DeFrank, Tom Wallace, Don May and Ed Brown all looked fine as they defended their South Suburban title won last year.

Track

Bob De Vries demonstrates hurdles to Tom Wallace and Edward Brown.

Varsity Tennis

Golf

For the golf season of 1953, Thornton had a new coach, Frank Froschauer, and four veteran teemen to face the 14 match schedule. Jack Drucker was number one on the squad with John Allison, Stan Cysl, and Ken Burke taking the next three slots. The fifth man for match play came from the eight other boys on the roster. Home meets were played at Ravisloe or Olympia Fields Country Club.

Tennis

Coach C. J. Moore's Netmen had a successful season this year in spite of the fact that last year's graduation took five of the first seven men on the team.

After easily winning two matches early in the season, the racketmen took on highly rated Blue Island and came out with a 2 to 2 tie. This was considered quite a feat since no South Suburban Conference team had ever come that close to the Blue Islanders in tennis.

This year's team consisted of the following: Captain Bob Clement and Herb Greiner, seniors; and freshman J. K. Sutor in the singles; senior Bob Gibson and sophomores Tom Clark, Jack Kickert, and Dan Simkins in the doubles. Clement was the only four year man on the squad, while Gibson and Sutor were the only new men.

Varsity Golf

Frosh champs—Miss Fredrickson.

Row 1: Melvin Dabon, Charles Clark. Row 2: Richard Danish, Downey David, Ralph Cooper.

Senior champs—Mr. Barwis, Mr. Pernecky.

Row 1: John Hampton, Dick Munro, Fred Baron. Row 2: George Ewan, Jim Gurganus, Dave Nank.

Intramural Sports

The intramural program started by Mr. Carl Mendenhall in 1951, has expanded into a full time program.

Intramurals were founded on the fact that, while every boy and girl enjoys the thrill of participating in sports, few have the outstanding skill to participate interscholastically. The aim of this program is to constitute a better understanding of sports.

The annual program consists of basketball, table tennis, checkers, shuffle board, and volleyball, which are played during the autumn and winter seasons. Tennis, horseshoes, soft ball, and golf are played during the spring. Plans also include a spring track meet. At times this schedule may vary.

An elimination tournament is scheduled for each sport at the end of each season.

Each year is bringing a bigger and better organization and greater participation by the student body.

Soph champs—Mr. Clark, Miss Gantzert, Mr. Moore.

Boys Physical Education

The new gym continued to serve as the center of the boys physical education classes. Everything from checkers to weight-lifting found its place in the extensive program offered to Thornton boys.

Buda gym was still used by a few of the classes, but the swimming pool, the tumbling room, the wrestling room, the weight room, and the main gym were in constant use.

Besides developing themselves through physical exercise, the boys learned proper health precautions and the intricacies of first aid. Another addition was the Sports Appreciation class.

Sports For Boys

In the fall and winter some of the classes took advantage of the great outdoors to play touch football and softball. Exercises and laps around the field or gym were used to keep the boys in line when they got rambunctious.

Most of the boys received a well-rounded schedule in the field of athletics, the classes being rotated every seven weeks.

Those who were highly skilled in some sport sometimes stayed in that sport all year long, helping the various coaches in their instructions by serving as demonstrators.

Boys with handicaps were placed in restricted classes where they would not be at any disadvantage.

Athletics became a part of every boy's life.

Sports For Girls

Modern dance style, ballroom and square dancing all played an important part in a rhythms student's curriculum. Girls created group and individual compositions, usually telling one story. Poise and posture were always stressed and most assuredly attained. The ever-popular jitterbug was one of the highlights of this year for the girls and was in practical use at all the PX's.

For those who desired more action, regular sport classes were provided. Volleyball, baseball, kickball, basketball were but a small number of the sports. Good understanding of the game, sportsmanship, and teamwork were at all times emphasized. With the guidance of the classes, the girls not only had wonderful times, but they also acquired much useful material.

Girls Physical Education

From the peppy freshmen to the sedate seniors, classes were held to fit the girls' particular needs.

Freshman classes met two days a week in the gym, two in the fieldhouse, and one for either swimming or folk dancing. In the Girls Gym they did gymnastics, relays, and skills, and learned some team games. Getting acquainted with things now, helped them choose sports later.

Archery, which meant sore arms, better posture, and hunting arrows, came first on the senior girls' agenda. This was followed by golf fundamentals, table tennis, badminton and shuffleboard. Days in the fieldhouse brought discussions and party fun plus Red Cross training.

Swimming

Miss Rodgers demonstrates a diving position.

Volleyball

Miss Coffland's class practice for ball-handling skill.

Splashing good times were had by all those who did turn their eyes to the mermaid territory. Even though swimming meant wet hair and tired looks, everyone had lots of fun.

Classes were divided into groups according to ability. Instructions followed a Red Cross plan, which enabled the girls to get various cards of advancement. In some groups, life saving was offered to those who wanted it. The beginners learned fundamentals such as floating and breathing and later advanced to the intermediate group. Here various strokes and long length swimming were stressed. Advanced swimmers learned to do some water ballet, diving, and synchronized swimming.

Gym Leaders

Swimming

Kick Ball

A red-hot game develops in Mrs. Doyle's class.

This year two new teachers were added to the Girls Physical Education Department. They were Mrs. Margaret Doyle and Miss Sally Rodgers. Something else was new. The Girls Gym did not look like the same old place this fall after its up-lifting of the face. That chartreuse green and shocking pink did appear different for a while. After a few weeks it was the same old gym despite the change in color.

Again this year, leaders were chosen to take attendance and aid the teachers in instruction. But something new was added this year. Leaders had an organized class of their own where they could take part in a recreational period and a sports program.

THE PEOPLE

There was one quantity Thornton couldn't seem to do without—its people. They furnished the humor and pathos, the spice to what could have been a dull routine. Because they were often unpredictable and even unreliable, they caused many headaches. Yet there were enough of the other kind to make school life very worth while.

Superintendent

Dr. Ernest M. Hanson came to Thornton from Pueblo, Colorado last fall as Thornton's new superintendent. In Pueblo, Dr. Hanson was superintendent of a high school and several elementary schools.

At the University of Minnesota Dr. Hanson earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees. He received his doctor's degree from Colorado State College of Education.

Dr. Ernest M. Hanson

Business Manager

Mr. Charles W. Foster, business manager of TTHS and secretary of the Board of Education, received his master's degree from Northwestern University. Assisted by a secretary and a bookkeeper, Mr. Foster devotes his time to practicing modern business management, including the latest machine accounting.

TTHS Board Of Education

The Board of Education, under the leadership of Mr. Edwin R. Waterman, has been very busy this year with its numerous activities.

Mr. Waterman, a farmer and banker in South Holland, and on the board for twelve years, has now retired.

Mr. George E. Gilley, who is in his second year on the board, is a local merchant.

Mr. Henry J. Van Der Giessen, who is also in his second year on the board, is a business man in South Holland.

Mr. George H. Meyer, a third year member of the board, is a business man in Homewood.

Mr. Fred T. Ehlert, a second year member, is an industrial foreman in one of the local factories.

Dr. Clarence E. Simon, one of the third year members, practices dentistry in Harvey.

Mr. William B. Kane is in his fourth year on the board. Mr. Kane, a local attorney, is a graduate of TTHS and TJC.

Mr. Henry Vandenberg is the newly elected member to the board.

John E. Tilton, B.S., M.A., Mathematics, Senior Class Principal, Sponsor National Honor Society.

Carl L. Beier, B.Ed., M.S., Physics, Junior Class Principal.

Guy Phillips, B.A., M.A., Mathematics, Sophomore Class Principal.

G. R. Valbert, M.S., General Science, Freshman Class Principal.

Clifford R. Maddox, B.S., M.A., Ph.D., Psychology, Supervisor of Instruction.

Assistant Administrators

The four class principals and the supervisor of instruction are Thornton's assistant administrators. Class principals schedule programs, watch attendance, and handle discipline. The supervisor of instruction manages the testing program, obtains substitute teachers, and supervises classrooms.

Dean of Girls

Helene E. Wilson, B.A., M.A., Social Science, Dean of Girls, Girls Club Sponsor, Purple X Committee.

Dean of Boys

O. Fred Umbaugh, M.A., English Department Head, Dean of Boys, Purple X Sponsor, Traffic Safety Committee.

Deans

Thornton's two deans play an important part in the personal guidance program at Thornton. The dean of boys is in charge of the Boys Club and supervises the hall guards, bus guards, and campus patrol. The dean of girls is in charge of the Girls Club and its social and welfare activities, as well as personal guidance.

Officers

Mrs. Helen Fesler, vice president; Miss Identa Moler, board; Mr. Lawrence Britton, board; Mr. Carl Mendenhall, president; Miss Velma Wray, secretary; Mr. Fred Burdine, board; Mr. Robert Sutor, treasurer.

Faculty Association

One hundred percent membership meant an active Faculty Association this year. The Credit Union flourished and committees of all sorts, for the betterment of both school and faculty, did an outstanding job.

Officers

Row 1: Mrs. Henry McIlwaine, secretary; Mrs. George Kay, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Roy Janson, vice president; Mrs. Herbert L. Rau, president. Row 2: Mrs. Selma Morrison, historian; Mrs. Helen Fesler, treasurer; Mr. Donald B. O'Brien, financial secretary; Dr. Ernest M. Hanson, superintendent.

Parent-Teachers Association

Thornton's Parent-Teacher Association held monthly meetings, promoted an open house "Meet-the-Teachers" night, and encouraged close cooperation between faculty and parents. The outstanding meeting featured the publication of the Reavis report.

Senior Honors

There was a lot of excitement as the end of the year approached and the various honors given to seniors were announced.

Many received hoped-for scholarships from the colleges of their choice, while others were granted funds from the many organizations which award such scholarships every year.

The names of those seniors who were on the Honor Roll and those elected to the National Honor Society remained a deep secret until the morning of Honors Day.

The members of NHS chosen from both junior and senior classes were announced on Honors Day, the day set aside to recognize all those students who had served the school during the year.

On Flag Day, the seniors carried out the tradition of giving the custodianship of the school flag to the junior class, seniors-to-be.

Sophomores

Sophomores came back in the fall without the timidness of their freshman year and concentrated on electing their officers, giving their party, and becoming active Thorntonites.

Freshmen

Freshmen, too, had their own activities and projects. Their efforts were devoted to the Freshman party held during the second semester. They also elected their first class officers.
